1.3.6. rate - the cost of additional education for 1 ECTS credit;

1.3.7. financial debt - arrears of tuition fees (payment rate), arrears of payment for additional services provided by the University.

1.3.8. Trust Fund - EHU Multi donor Trust Fund was established in the framework of EU funded project "EU4Belarus: Support to the European Humanities University" which is implemented by Central Project Management Agency of Lithuania. The aim of the Trust Fund is to consolidate the donor support received by the EHU and to ensure efficient and centralized management of financial resources.

1.3.9. Unified Financial Commission of the European Humanities University for the distribution of scholarships and provision of financial aid to EHU students (hereinafter referred to as the Unified Commission) is a commission whose purpose is to ensure the legality of the distribution of financial aid to EHU students, to increase the level of control over the process of distributing financial aid and the transparency of this process, to ensure centralized storage of data related to the process of distributing financial aid, including by maintaining a single database at the level of each student.

1.3.10. Repeated learning is a mandatory course repetition when a student has not achieved the course study results, has not passed the exam during the session and/or during the retake, or has received a negative grade.

1.4. The following legend and abbreviations are used in the Rules:

1.4.1. BA - programmes of the first cycle of studies (Bachelor);

1.4.2. MA - programmes of the second cycle of studies (Master's);

1.4.3. Integrated - integrated (first and second cycle, Master's) university study programmes;

1.4.4. HR - programmes of the full-time with the face-to-face schedule or blended mode;

1.4.5. LR - programmes of the full-time studies with a sessional or blended schedule mode;

1.4.6. PhD - programme of the third cycle of studies in the field of "Philosophy" (Doctoral);

1.4.7. ECTS - European Credit Transfer System.

1.5. By the order of the Rector, the cost of additional services not directly related to studies can be changed, provided that the size of the changes does not exceed 20% of the existing cost.

2. PAYMENT RATES FOR STUDIES

2.1. The size of payment rates for studies per semester for applicants entering the first year is approved by the decision of the Governing Board of the University (Annex 1).

2.2. The size of the tuition fee for the reporting period (semester) for students is established on the basis of decisions of the General Meeting of Co-Owners (GAPO) for the corresponding year of enrollment (Appendices 2, 2.1, 2.2, 2.3; 2.4 to the Rules).

2.3. The size of the tuition fee for the reporting period (semester) for students is established on the basis of decisions of the General Meeting of Co-Owners (GAPO) for the corresponding year of enrollment (Appendices 2, 2.1, 2.2, 2.3; 2.4 to the Rules).

2.4. The conditions and basic criteria for the provision of grants for studies are established by the Regulations on the procedure for the distribution of grants and scholarships at the European Humanitarian University (Annex 3).

2.5. The procedure for assigning payment rates to students of MA programmes and integrated study programme of a HR studies, who were granted state scholarship and coverage of payment rate by the Educational Exchanges Support Foundation of the Ministry of Education, Science and Sport of the Republic of Lithuania, is established by the Regulations on the assignment of payment rates to second-year students who were granted scholarship and coverage of tuition fees (Annex 4).

2.6. The rate of payment for study subjects for listeners of distance learning courses is 40 EUR per 1 credit (ECTS). Payment is made before the start of the course in the terms established in the study agreement.

2.7. Student (s) may be given the opportunity to receive a greater number of credits than is projected by the curriculum. The rate of the payment when passing an additional study subject in HR and LR study modes is 40 EUR for 1 credit. Payment is made in accordance with the terms specified in the relevant order. After successful completion of the course, a certificate is issued to the student (s).

2.8. Retake of the exam with the aim of obtaining a diploma with honours. When a student (s) retakes the exam in order to obtain a diploma with honours, a fee of 45 EUR is assigned for the work of the examination committee.

3. CONDITIONS AND TERMS OF PAYMENT FOR STUDIES

3.1. Payment of tuition fee for the first semester, specified in the agreement for the provision of educational services, by students of the higher residence form of study shall be made within 5 (five) calendar days from the date of the beginning of the first semester.

3.2. Payment of tuition fee for the first semester, specified in the agreement for the provision of educational services, by students of the low residence form of study shall be made within 15 (fifteen) calendar days from the date of the beginning of the first semester.

3.3. Payment of tuition fee by students in the second and later semesters is made before the 15th day of the first month of the current semester, unless otherwise specified by the order of the Rector.

3.4. In the case of students having a financial debt, the responsible person from the Academic support centre sends a notification (warning) to the student's email address with a request to pay the debt. The notification must contain the exact amount of the debt and the deadline for payment.

3.5. In case of non-payment for studies on time, students are not able to honourably dismiss and are subject to dismissal on the initiative of the University as they did not start their studies in the reporting period.

3.6. When dismissing in accordance with clause 3.5 of these Rules, the arrears of payment in the reporting period are cancelled.

3.7. The possibility of honourable dismissal, and not on the initiative of the University, can be provided if the following conditions are met:

3.7.1. the absence of financial debts for the previous period of study;

3.7.2. submission of the application for honourable dismissal:

3.7.2.1. until the deadline specified in clause 3.2 of these Rules (in this case, the arrears of payment in the reporting period are cancelled in full).

3.7.2.2. after the period specified in clause 3.2. of these Rules:

3.7.2.2.1. when applying for dismissal before the end of the first month of the semester and paying 50% of the tuition fee in the reporting period (50% of the arrears in payment in the reporting period are cancelled);

3.7.2.2.2. when applying for dismissal starting from the second month of the semester and paying 100% of the tuition fee in the reporting period.

3.8. Full-time employees of the University who have been working at EHU continuously for at least 1(one) year, as well as their spouses or children, have the right to receive a 50% discount on tuition fees. To receive a discount, an application must be submitted to the Rector of the University no later than the 15th (fifteenth) day of the first month of the current semester.

3.9. In all cases not regulated by this section, decisions are made by the Rector on an individual basis.

4. PAYMENT OF TUITION FEE UPON ADMISSION TO THE UPPER COURSE, TRANSFERS AND REPEATING COURSE

4.1. Students may be admitted to the upper course after the University has recognized the results of partial studies obtained in another higher education institution or after the results of informal and self-study have been recognized as results of study in a higher education institution.

4.1.1. Upon enrollment to the upper course students pay for the first semester of study in accordance with the financial conditions applicable to the course and form of study in which the student has been enrolled.

4.1.2. In the future, students may participate in a competition to receive a grant to pay for their studies in accordance with the financial conditions that apply to the course and form of study to which the student was initially enrolled.

4.2. When transferring to another mode of study, the maximum payment rate is established according to the financial conditions that are valid for the enrolment year to which the transfer is made.

4.3. When transferring to another study programme within the framework of the same mode of study, the payment rate is determined based on the results of studies in the reporting period:

4.3.1. If the transfer is made before the beginning of the semester, the student has the right to participate in the competition for a grant, as do students of the group, form and program of study to which the transfer was made.

4.3.2. If the transfer is made after the beginning of the semester, the student loses the right to a grant, if one was received.

4.4. When repeating a year of study the maximum payment rate is assigned for the reporting period.

4.5. Tuition fees for students (except Master's students) who remain to repeat their final year are calculated based on the number of credits remaining to complete the curriculum.

5. PAYMENT FOR STUDIES WHEN EARLY COMPLETING THE STUDIES IN THE PROGRAMMES OF LR MODE OF STUDIES

5.1. In the case of early completion of studies in the programmes of LR mode of study, i.e. on the 4th year (bachelor programmes) or on the 5th year (integrated study programmes), payment for the last year of study for each semester is calculated as the payment rate per semester multiplied by 1.5.

5.2. Payment for studies is made twice a year in the terms specified in clause 3.2. of these Rules.

5.3. The procedure and conditions for early completion of studies in the programmes of LR mode of study is set out in the Regulations on the procedure of early completion of studies in undergraduate study programmes of LR mode of study (Annex 7).

6. PAYMENT FOR STUDIES WHEN READMITTING

6.1. Upon readmitting, the maximum payment rate is assigned for the reporting period in accordance with the financial conditions in effect for the course and form of study to which the student is being readmitted.

6.2. Payment for studies for students who are readmitted to the graduation course and who previously studied at the graduation course during the academic year is calculated on the basis of the remaining credits to complete the curriculum.

6.3. Payment for studies for the semester when readmitted, as well as the repayment of existing financial debts for the previous study period, is made before the release of the order for readmission.

6.4. When readmitting students who were dismissed before the 2017/2018 academic year inclusively and who were not certified for any study subjects of the semester of the last dismissal, the payment arrears for the semester of the last dismissal are not taken into the account.

6.5. When students who have had applications for installment plans and delays of payment in the semester of dismissal are readmitted, the debt in payment for studies for the semester of dismissal remains valid.

7. PAYMENT FOR STUDIES WHEN GRANTING ACADEMIC LEAVE

7.1. Granting of academic leave is subject to the following conditions:

7.1.1. lack of financial debts for the previous period of study;

7.1.2. submission of the application:

7.1.2.1. before the term specified in clause 3.1, 3.2 and 3.3 of these Rules;

7.1.2.2. after the term, specified in clause 3.1, 3.2 and 3.3 of these Rules, if one pays 100% of the tuition fee in the reporting period.

7.2. When getting back from the academic leave the payment rate established for the semester (academic year), in which the academic leave was granted, is retained for the first semester of returning. In the future, students may participate in a competition for the provision of grants under the financial conditions established for the recruitment year with which students will study.

7.3. When returning from academic leave to another program or mode of study, the student is assigned the maximum tuition fee rate under the financial conditions that apply to the intake, mode and program to which the student returns.

7.4. In the future, students study under the financial conditions established for the year of intake, form and program of study with which they will study.

7.6. When returning from academic leave, the student can participate in the competition for a grant to pay for tuition only from the next semester.

8. PAYMENT FOR LIQUIDATION OF ACADEMIC DEBTS

8.1. Payment for the liquidation of academic debts shall be made in accordance with the time periods specified in the order on payment for the liquidation of academic debts.

8.2. When repeating the study subject, the rate of payment is 40 EUR per 1 credit (ECTS).

8.3. Re-examination or test - 15 EUR.

8.4. Re-taking the exam or passing with the examination committee - 45 EUR.

8.5. The first re-defence of final theses - the rate is calculated as follows: the number of credits for the final thesis (corresponding to the enrolment year with which the student will defend) is multiplied by the cost of the credit corresponding to the enrolment year with which the student will defend.

8.6. The second and subsequent defence of the final thesis - the payment rate is set in accordance with clause 8.5. of these Rules and multiplied by two.

8.7. Payment for liquidation of academic debts cannot be made by instalments.

8.8. In case of non-payment for liquidation of academic debts certification cannot be taken into consideration.

9. SCHOLARSHIPS AND GRANTS¹

9.1. Scholarships are divided into incentive, social and nominal scholarships.

9.1.1. The procedure for awarding scholarships is governed by separate regulations:

- Regulations on awarding the Valeriy Lobko nominal scholarship (Annex 7);
- Regulations on awarding the Vladimir Furs nominal scholarship (Annex 8);
- Regulations on awarding Friends of EHU scholarship (Annex 9);
- Regulations on awarding the Alumni scholarship (Annex 10);
- Regulations on the award of Social scholarships at the EHU (Annex 13).

9.2. The conditions and main criteria for awarding grants are established by the Regulations on the procedure for the allocation of grants at the European Humanitarian University (Annex 3).

9.3. When distributing grants and scholarships, the final decision is made on the basis of an order from the rector after receiving a recommendation from the Unified Commission based on a recommendation provided by individual commissions considering the provision of a certain type of financial support to students.

10. CONDITIONS FOR THE DELAY OF PAYMENT FOR STUDIES OR THE INSTALMENT PLAN OF PAYMENT FOR STUDIES

10.1. Payment for studies in exceptional cases and in the absence of financial debts for the previous period of study may be delayed or made in installments.

10.2. Delay of payment may be granted on the basis of:

- A statement stating the reason, the amount of the payment and the date until which the granting of the delay is requested.
- A written guarantee signed by the guarantor or one of the student's parents (if needed).
- The application must be sent no later than the date specified in clauses 3.1, 3.2 , 3.3 of these Rules.
- Delay of payment for studies may be granted no more than for a month after the date specified in clauses 3.1, 3.2, 3.3 of these Rules.

10.3. Payment by instalments may be granted on the basis of:

- Statement which indicates the reason, the amount of payment, and timing of payments.
- The application must be sent no later than the date specified in clauses 3.1, 3.2 , 3.3 of these Rules.
- The application must be accompanied by a document confirming payment of at least 50% of the amount due to be paid.
- The last part of the payment must be made no later than the start date of the final examination session of the corresponding semester;
- When studying on LR mode of study programmes or master's programmes in exceptional cases, the first payment may be made at the first face-to-face session.

10.4. The decision on granting a delay or installment plan for payment for studies is made by the Rector on the basis of information provided by the Academic Support Center.

10.5. In case of non-fulfilment of financial obligations, students are subject to dismissal from the University for failure to pay for studies.

11. COMPENSATION OF THE PAID TUITION FEE

11.1. When applying for honourable dismissal, the tuition fee paid can be refunded:

11.1.1. If the application is submitted before the deadline specified in clause 3.1, 3.2. and 3.3 of these Rules, the amount paid will be refunded in full (100%).

11.1.2. If the application is submitted in the first month of the semester, but after the term specified in clause 3.1, 3.2. and 3.3 of these Rules, 50% of the amount paid will be refunded.

¹ Grants and scholarships under these rules cannot be awarded to students of University branches.

11.1.3. In cases not specified in subparagraphs 11.1.1-11.1.2 of the Rules, the amount of the payment made will not be refunded.

11.2. To reimburse paid tuition fees a student must submit an application addressed to the Rector no later than one month after the release of the order on dismissal.

11.3. Tuition fee reimbursement is not made in all cases of dismissal on the initiative of the University.

11.4. Reimbursement of overpayments is made in full. To compensate for the overpayment of tuition fees, student must submit an application addressed to the Rector no later than one month after the release of the order for dismissal.

12. FEES FOR ADDITIONAL SERVICES DIRECTLY NOT ASSOCIATED WITH STUDIES

12.1. The University provides the following paid services not directly related to studies:

12.1.1. Printing and copying;

12.1.2. Binding of documents with a plastic spiral;

12.1.3. Adjustment of a bound copy (plastic spiral);

12.1.4. Distribution of University publications;

12.1.5. Issuance of duplicate diplomas and diploma supplements;

12.1.6. Accommodation in a dormitory.

12.2. The fees and conditions for the provision of additional services are listed in Annex 11 and Annex 12.

12.3. The fees for additional services not specified in clause 12.1. of these Rules may be approved by a separate order of the Rector. The fee for such services shall be determined taking into account the costs incurred by the University in the provision of services, and taking into account their average market value.

13. COLLECTING FINANCIAL DEBTS

Financial debts are collected in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Lithuania.

14. FINAL PROVISIONS

14.1. Changes and additions to annexes 1, 2 of these Rules are approved by the General Assembly of Part-Owners of the European Humanities University (GAPO).

14.2. Changes and additions to annexes 3-13 of these Rules are approved by the Rector of the European Humanities University.

14.3. The stipulated Rules come into effect after they are approved by the General Assembly of Part-Owners of the European Humanities University (GAPO).

REGULATIONS ON THE PROCEDURE FOR THE ALLOCATION OF GRANTS AT THE EUROPEAN HUMANITIES UNIVERSITY

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1. The Regulation on the procedure for distributing grants at the European Humanities University (hereinafter referred to as the Regulation) defines the conditions and main criteria on the basis of which students of the public institution “European Humanities University” (hereinafter referred to as the University) are provided with grants for study.

1.2. The Regulation has been developed in accordance with the Law of the Republic of Lithuania of 30 April 2009 No. XI-242 “On Science and Education”, other regulatory legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania regulating education issues, the Statute of the University, and other local legal acts of the University.

1.3. The following basic concepts and their definitions are used in the Regulation:

1.3.1. academic rating - average score for compulsory subjects of the working curriculum of the reporting period;

1.3.2. grant - financial assistance provided to a student to fully or partially cover the cost of tuition in a specific semester;

1.3.3. final rating - an indicator of students' academic performance, including academic rating and additional points;

1.3.4. scientific and creative achievements - students' achievements in scientific, research and creative activities;

1.3.5. absence of academic debt - positive final grades in the disciplines of the working curriculum in the reporting period were received the first time during the main examination session, if there are valid reasons for not attending the main examination session - positive final grades were received within the timeframes established by the University;

1.3.6. reporting period - the period preceding the semester during which a grant is distributed to pay for tuition, for which the academic rating is calculated or additional points are awarded;

1.3.7. portfolio - academic, scientific and creative achievements of students for the reporting period;

1.3.8. payment rate - the cost of tuition (amount of payment) taking into account the grant provided to the student to pay for tuition (if provided).

1.4. A student has the right to receive only one of the following types of financial support in the current semester:

1.4.1. grant from the University;

1.4.2. scholarship at the expense of the University (except for social and nominal scholarships).

1.5. If a student receives financial support not from the University (external donors, etc.), the student does not have the right to receive financial support from the University for the same purpose in the relevant reporting period.

1.6. The size and number of grants, as well as the procedure for their provision, are established on the basis of the terms of use of the University's financial resources, determined by the General Assembly of Part-Owners (GAPO).

1.7. A grant may be awarded to a student on a competitive basis if the student meets the following conditions:

1.7.1. absence of academic and financial debts for the reporting period;

1.7.2. absence of administrative or other penalties in the reporting period;

1.7.3. compliance with the rules of academic ethics established by the Code of Academic Ethics of EHU during the reporting period;

1.7.4. academic rating of not less than 9.0 points with an accuracy of two digits after the decimal point, when calculating the rating for persons with disabilities, 1 point is added to the academic rating.

1.8. Grounds for termination of the grant:

1.8.1. change of program and/or form of education;

1.8.2. unenrollment from the list of students;

1.8.3. granting academic leave during the semester in which the grant is provided;

1.8.4. imposition of disciplinary action during the semester in which the grant is provided;

1.8.5. causing material damage to the University or damage to its business reputation during the semester of grant provision, established in accordance with the requirements of the legislation of the Republic of Lithuania;

1.8.6. detection of plagiarism in the completion of written work (coursework, semester work, etc.) during the grant semester;

1.8.7. existence of financial debts to the University.

2. PROCEDURE FOR PROVIDING GRANTS

2.1. Grants are provided to students from the second semester of study on a competitive basis based on the results of the assessment of student portfolios and taking into account the student's academic rating for the reporting period. Grants are provided to students of the first semester of study on a competitive basis based on the results of the assessment of the applicant's portfolio.

2.2. Applications for a grant with an attached portfolio by students from the second semester of study are submitted: no later than September 1 - for the reporting period "February 1 - August 31" and no later than 6 working days after the end of the winter session - for the reporting period "September 1 - January 31". Applications for a grant with an attached portfolio by students of the first semester of study are submitted after students have paid for the first semester of study.

2.3. To participate in the competition for a grant, a student must submit the following documents (hereinafter referred to as the application package) to the address specified in the Methodological Recommendations of the relevant educational program:

2.3.1. application in the established form;

2.3.2. a portfolio including documents confirming the student's academic, scientific and creative achievements for the reporting period or prior to admission to the university (in the case of first-semester students), prepared in accordance with the established Methodological Recommendations on the structure and procedure for assessing the portfolio for the provision of grants (hereinafter referred to as the Methodological Recommendations), approved by the head of the relevant academic Department of the University.

2.4. Application packages are reviewed by Subject Committees of the Academic Departments. The composition of the committees is approved by the Rector's order. The committee includes at least 3 teachers in the following areas:

2.4.1. The subject committee reviews and ranks the submitted application packages in accordance with the requirements of the Regulations and Methodological Recommendations of the relevant educational program.

2.4.2. The ranking of application packages is carried out based on the sum of the points received for the portfolio and the academic rating point.

2.5. Based on the results of reviewing the application packages, the Subject Commissions adopt recommendations for the distribution of grants in the form of minutes of the commission meetings:

2.5.1. no later than September 20 - with regard to the provision of grants for tuition fees in the fall semester;

2.5.2. no later than February 26 - with regard to the provision of grants for tuition fees in the spring semester.

2.5.3 no later than October 17 - for students in the first semester of study.

2.6. The Secretary of the Subject Commission shall submit the minutes of the meeting of the Subject Commission for consideration by the Unified Commission no later than 5 (five) working days from the date of the meeting of the Subject Commission.

2.7. The Unified Commission, taking into account the recommendations of the Subject Commissions, makes final recommendations on the provision of grants. The decision of the Unified Commission is formalized in a protocol.

2.8. The Secretary of the Unified Commission shall submit the minutes of the meeting of the Unified Commission for consideration by the Rector no later than 5 (five) working days from the date of the meeting of the Unified Commission.

2.9. The final decision on the distribution of grants and the establishment of payment rates is made by the Rector, taking into account the recommendations of the Unified Commission and is formalized by order:

2.9.1. no later than March 1 - with regard to the provision of grants for the spring semester;

2.9.2. no later than October 1 - with regard to the provision of grants for the fall semester.

The Academic Support Centre is the University unit responsible for preparing the draft of Rector's order on tuition rates.

2.10. During the period of study on international student exchange programs, the established fee rate is retained after the grant is provided.

3. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

3.1. Subject commissions, the Academic Department, and the Unified Commission are not obliged to provide comments to participants in the portfolio competition in connection with questions about the evaluation of their portfolio, the portfolios of other students, etc.

3.2. If a student believes that the established procedure was violated during the competition, he/she has the right to file an application with the Student Dispute Resolution Commission. The application must be filed within 3 (three) working days from the date of issuance of the order on tuition rates. Appeals based on disagreement with the results of the competition without indicating a violation of the procedure will not be considered.
